

CUSTOM MADE X-RAY PROTECTION CURTAINS ON RAILS
The curtains and blinds are individually tailored and manufactured to fit your exact requirements.

Product description:

- Easy operation.
- Technical longevity.
- Perfect radiation protection due to precise overlapping and mechanically supported, absolutely secure closing of the slats.

Perfection through Functionality

There are practically no limits to the number of options available for designing your protective curtain system.

Custom Manufacture

- Individual solutions for all window types and room layouts
- Exact planning according to your installation requirements
- Free of charge and non-binding support during planning by our professional team

Mechanical Components

- The curtain head rail as well as all other mechanical components are designed for heavy loads
- Curtain head rail is extruded from a special aluminium die
- Carriages are made out of a hardened plastic material with safety ball bearings
- Curtains are made out of high quality single-layer lead rubber material
- Slat connectors are made out of a high load capacity carbon fiber material

Lead equivalent: 0.50 mm Pb, 1.5 mm Pb, 2 mm Pb, 1 mm Pb

Panel park position: Left, Right

Position of movement cords: Left, Right

Reference: -